

FAQs

What is a remote device?

Remote devices are programming devices that retrieve jobs via the server and transfer them to E2/E3 keys or programming keys. These are available as wall-mounted devices for indoor and outdoor use and as mobile devices for use on the move.

