

How can a programming job in several cylinders be created via the list function (video/film) ?

In CLIQ Web Manager, a programming job for selected cylinders can be created simultaneously in several cylinders using the list function. Here, authorisations for individual keys or key groups can be added or removed.

The software recognises in which cylinders the programming job must be newly created or where desired authorisations already exist.

You can see exactly how the procedure works in this video.

Link zum FAQ-Eintrag | Status as of: 05.07.2018 | RedTeam